Re: Aerial Wiring Ordinance
First Draft

Dear Mr. San Felippo:

I received your email message concerning requiring all new utility service/companies to bury any wiring needed for that service/company and your request that I propose an ordinance to accomplish that intent. I have had an opportunity to carefully consider this matter.

Based upon my review, I note the following comments, questions, concerns and recommendations in this regard.

1. Preliminary Issues. Before I can draft the requested ordinance, I need to advise you of some significant legal hurdles, to be sure we draft the ordinance as you intend. The concern is enforceability. Wisconsin Statutes Section 196.58. Subsection (1r) of this Section says the following:

(1r) The governing body of every municipality may:

(a) Determine by municipal regulation the quality and character of each kind of product or service to be furnished or rendered by any public utility within the municipality and all other terms and conditions, consistent with this chapter and ch. 197, upon which the public utility may be permitted to occupy the streets, highways or other public places within the municipality. The municipal regulation shall be in force and on its face reasonable.

(b) Require of any public utility any addition or extension to its physical plant within the municipality as shall be reasonable and necessary in the interest of the public, and designate the location and nature of the addition or extension, the time within which it must be completed, and any condition under which it must be constructed, subject to review by the commission under sub. (4).

(c) Provide a penalty for noncompliance with the provisions of any municipal regulation adopted under this subsection.

The key language above is that the regulation must be reasonable. Further, in subsection (b), it requires that the location must be in the public interest. While those hurdles may seem small, it is significant because per Wis. Stats. 196.58(4), any public utility is able to bring a complaint to the Wisconsin Public Service Commission (PSC), which will then hold a hearing if the utility believes the requirements are unreasonable. If the PSC finds it to be unreasonable, the municipal regulation is void.

2. League of Wisconsin Municipality Opinions. The League has discussed and provided opinions related to this Statute a number of times. In its “Public Utilities #331” Opinion, the League analyzed a proposed ordinance that would require non-municipal utilities to bear the cost of burying transmission lines. In the Opinion, the League reviewed a 1978 PSC ruling relating to a City of Madison ordinance that required all utility wires constructed after a certain date to be underground. The PSC determined it was void because the ordinance did not allow the reasonableness to be determined on a case-by-case basis.

Further in the opinion, the League also stated the following:

I discussed your questions with David Ludwig, assistant chief counsel for the PSC. He informed me that the PSC recently ruled that an ordinance adopted by the Town of Burke which required utilities to bury all utility wires was unreasonable and therefore void. The town had modeled its ordinance after the City of Madison ordinance which the PSC ruled invalid in 1978.

It may be difficult for the Village to enforce all utilities after a certain date are required to be underground, but it likely can require it in some circumstances.

In its “Public Utilities #337” Opinion, the League discussed a PSC decision to uphold a City of La Crosse ordinance which required distribution wires to be placed underground in certain circumstances. The wires had to be underground when new alley pavement was being planned, and the wires were located in a public right of way, and were within an area designated by City officials. The PSC found because the ordinance only applied to electrical distribution lines, and not transmission lines, and that it had not been unreasonably applied, it was a reasonable regulation. Lastly, the PSC found the ordinance was based on legitimate and reasonable concerns for safety of firefighters and other individuals.

3. City of La Crosse Ordinance. Enclosed please find a copy of a City of La Crosse ordinance which requires underground utility wires. This ordinance is part of Chapter 40 “Streets and Sidewalks” of their City Code, and is Article III entitled “Underground Utility Wires.” I recommend the Village consider whether this framework would be consistent with your intent. This only requires utilities to be buried in certain circumstances reducing the risk that the ordinance would be overturned by the PSC if it would be challenged.

4. Recommendation. I recommend the Village ordinance does not include a blanket requirement for all utilities to be underground. As discussed above, the City of Madison and Town of Burke ordinances requiring the same were found to be unreasonable and therefore void and unenforceable. The ordinance needs to allow for case-by-case reasonableness assessment. Further, and similar to the City of La Crosse ordinance, the Village should only require it in certain circumstances, such as when right-of-way projects may require relocation. Please consider the issues noted herein and let me know how you want to proceed. I will be happy to draft an ordinance for you upon clarification of your intent.

If you should have any questions or concerns regarding these matters, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours very truly,
MUNICIPAL LAW & LITIGATION GROUP, S.C.
